Standard working hours are 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM, Monday to Friday, including a one-hour lunch break. Total: 40 working hours a week.

Flexible timing: employees may start any time between 8:30 AM and 10:30 AM, provided they complete 8 working hours a day. Core hours, when everyone must be available, are 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM.

Late arrival: arriving after 10:30 AM counts as a late mark. Three late marks in a calendar month are counted as half a day of casual leave.

Attendance is recorded by logging in to the HR portal. Missed punches must be regularised within 3 working days, with the manager's approval.

2. Leave policy

The leave year runs from 1 January to 31 December. New joiners receive leave on a pro-rata basis from their joining month.

Probation: during probation, employees can take casual and sick leave only. Earned leave can be used after confirmation.

Sandwich rule: if leave is taken on both the Friday and the following Monday, the weekend in between is also counted as leave.

Leave encashment: unused earned leave up to 30 days is paid out at basic salary on resignation or retirement.

During probation, work from home is allowed only in exceptional cases with HR approval.

While working from home, employees must be reachable during core hours, use the company VPN, and work from a safe, private place. A monthly internet allowance of Rs 1,000 is paid to employees who work from home regularly.

5. Probation and confirmation

All new employees have a probation period of 6 months. The manager reviews performance at the end of month 3 and month 6.

On successful review, HR issues a confirmation letter. Probation can be extended once by up to 3 months. During probation, the notice period on either side is 15 days.

Senior, Lead and Manager (L5 and above)	90 days
During probation (all levels)	15 days

How to resign: log in to the HR portal, open My profile and choose Resign. Your manager approves first, then HR confirms your last working day.

Early release: you can request early release. It is at the manager's discretion and depends on handover. Unserved notice days may be recovered at basic salary, or adjusted against earned leave if HR agrees.

Clearance: before your last day, return all company assets, hand over your work, settle advances and complete the exit interview. Full and final settlement is paid within 45 days of the last working day. Relieving and experience letters are issued within 7 days after clearance is complete.

Absence without notice: being absent for 10 or more consecutive working days without informing the manager is treated as absconding. HR sends reminder and return-to-work notices before taking action.

Annual salary reviews happen in April, based on performance ratings and company results.

Reimbursements (travel, internet, certifications, client meals) must be claimed within 30 days of the expense, with bills. Approved claims are paid with the next salary.
